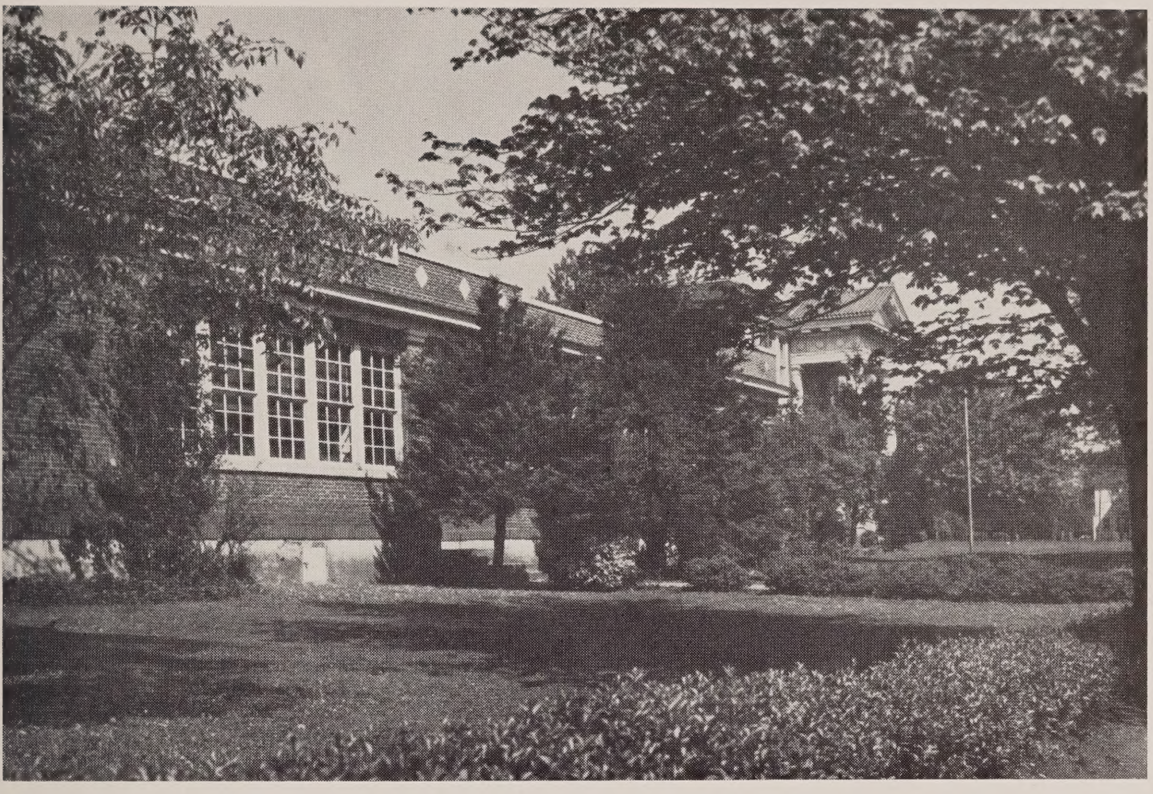
THE LIBRARY OF VIRGINIA
RICHMOND, VA



As a tree, in order to grow, must have a sturdy trunk and pliable branches—so must humans. To us, you have been our trunk; we, your branches. Through our years of growth we have clung to you for support and have been strengthened. Just as the trunk of a tree sustains its branches—so have you nurtured all of us while directing our lives toward new and varied horizons.

Some of us have failed and dropped from your care; others have continued to develop from twigs into branches and have grown to be almost independent limbs.

Even though we are about to be severed from all formal ties, there pulsates in each of us an ardent desire to follow the ideals and principles imparted to us during our days of close association.

You have put something within our hearts, our minds, our beings, that no one but God alone can ever, ever take away. A part of us will always belong to you and yearn for you — our Alma Mater.

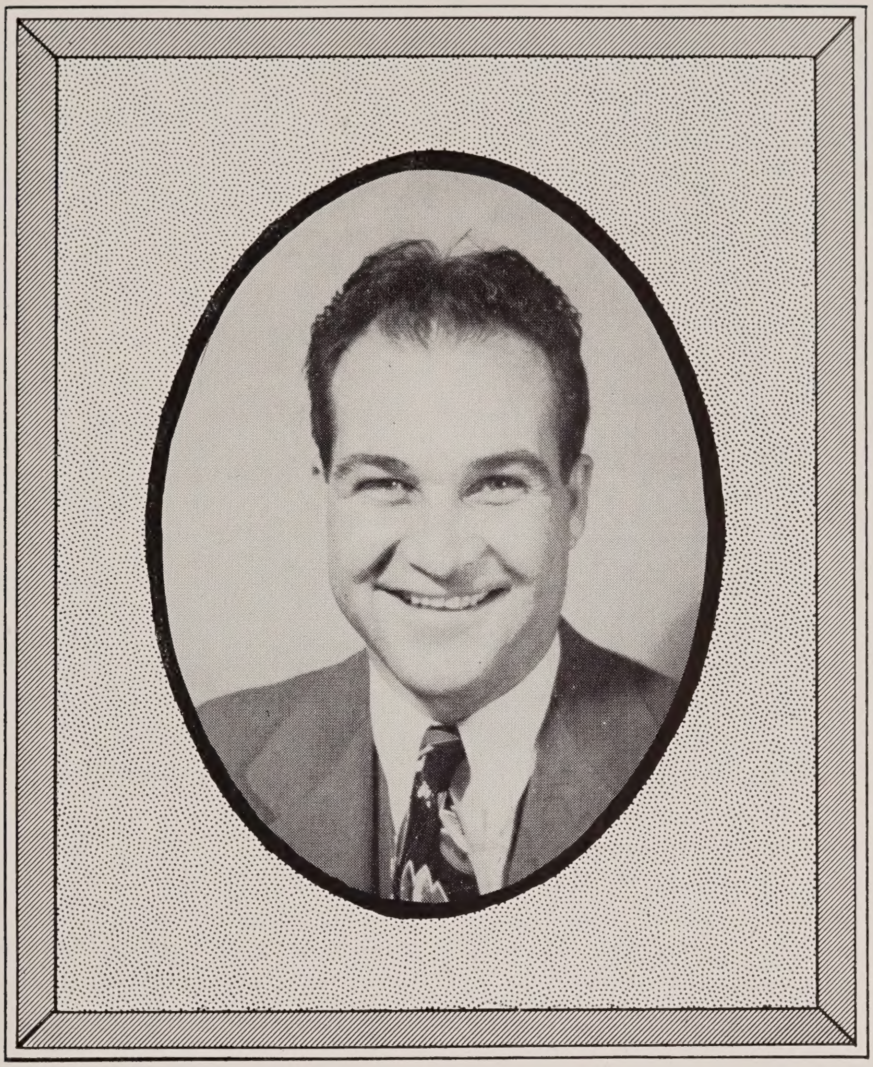
Foreword

The Seniors have attempted to present the annual, not only as a high school record, but as a tribute to a precious treasure — our heritage, invaluable and without substitute.

The early Orange County historical theme, we feel, has made the annual more meaningful and has colored our hands with its red clay.

In facing the future may we take with us the faith and accomplishments of these great Orange County personages and events.

Here then, is the Oracle of 1950 and with it, we hope, we give you a deeper and fuller appreciation of your birthright.



Dedication

In appreciation of cheerful and inspiring leadership, promotion of unusual and original ideas, and expenditure of time and energy on our behalf, we, the Senior Class of Orange High School, proudly dedicate the 1950 Oracle to Mr. W. T. D. Pumphrey.

Verse

The Class of '50
Will soon be parting,
To leave forever
Our Alma Mater.
We're wondering whether
We'll meet — if ever.
Till then, here's luck to you!
And may tomorrow be bright!

Chorus

Sad is the time now
When we must part,
But memories linger
Deep in our hearts.
Those memories, of days gone by,
We shared together
At Orange High!

Announcing — The birth of an "Orange Peal"
Day — Monday
Third period
Place — Miss Payne's room

A feeling of confusion, excitement, and worry permeates the air; for today, somehow out of this hubbub, we must create another edition of the Orange Peal. But . . . where are the news stories? Go look in the trash can! I just had the "Grade Notes" — perhaps I gave them to you. Oh, dear — Sports — did we have a game Friday night? . . . No, sorry — I don't know any Orange Juice. Here — take this editorial and polish it up. Now to get the Chapel straightened out. Oh, my — the bell. Well, we'll finish this sixth period.

Then in the afternoon — it's the same old thing . . . Where is the paper? I just can't remember . . . Oh, yes — look under the blotter. Ah — found it!! The "Flashes" have to be typed — add this one. Has Miss Payne checked everything? Good!

This year we have actively practiced Student Government to a degree formerly considered impossible.

We have developed a greater understanding between the administration and the Student body; a feeling of closer cooperation and responsibility among ourselves, and, above all, we have developed a sense of achievement.

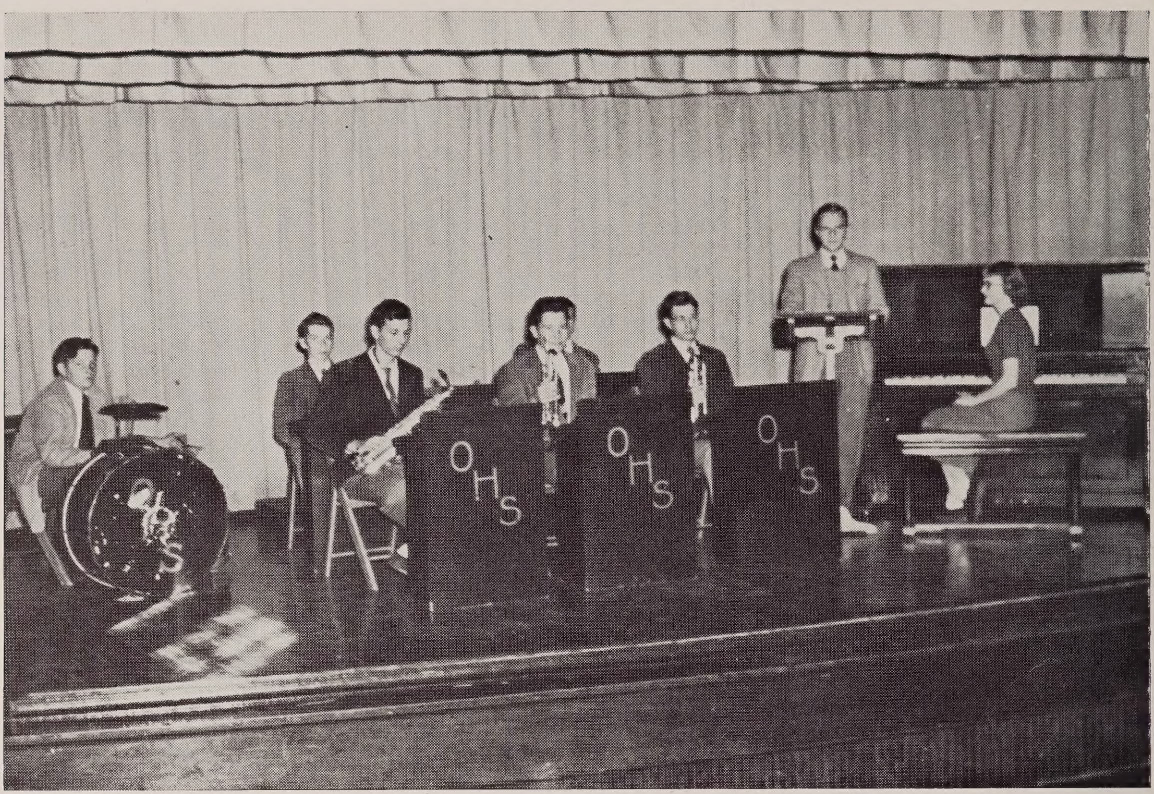
The chief aim of the Masquers Club is to promote dramatic and forensic interest in the school.

Some accomplishments for the year:

1. Revived and reorganized the Student Cooperative Association.
2. Gave a Gridiron Dance in honor of the 1949-'50 Football Team.
3. Developed and staged a program for the S. C. A. Christmas meeting.
4. Produced three one-act plays. One for the S. C. A., a radio play given over W. J. M. A., and a play for entry in the State One-Act Play Contest.
5. Organized and helped produce the Variety Show, Orange High's annual follies.



Orange High School Band

The band, formerly organized by Mr. Alfred Curtis, was not active in '49 after he went to another school.

In the fall of this session Jimmy Neyheart, an alumnus and a member of the original band, volunteered to reorganize the band.

Under Jimmy's direction the boys, with Mary Virginia Roberts as pianist, got started and have made some progress this year.

Director	Miss Kean

The chorus members have taken charge of the musical programs for chapel and the S. C. A. meetings. They have also appeared before the P. T. A., the Orange Music Club, and the U. D. C., on several occasions.

The chorus presented its first radio program in December over W. J. M. A.

The Choral group contributed a major part in the annual "Variety Show" held in the spring, and, as usual, provided music for commencement.

Library Club

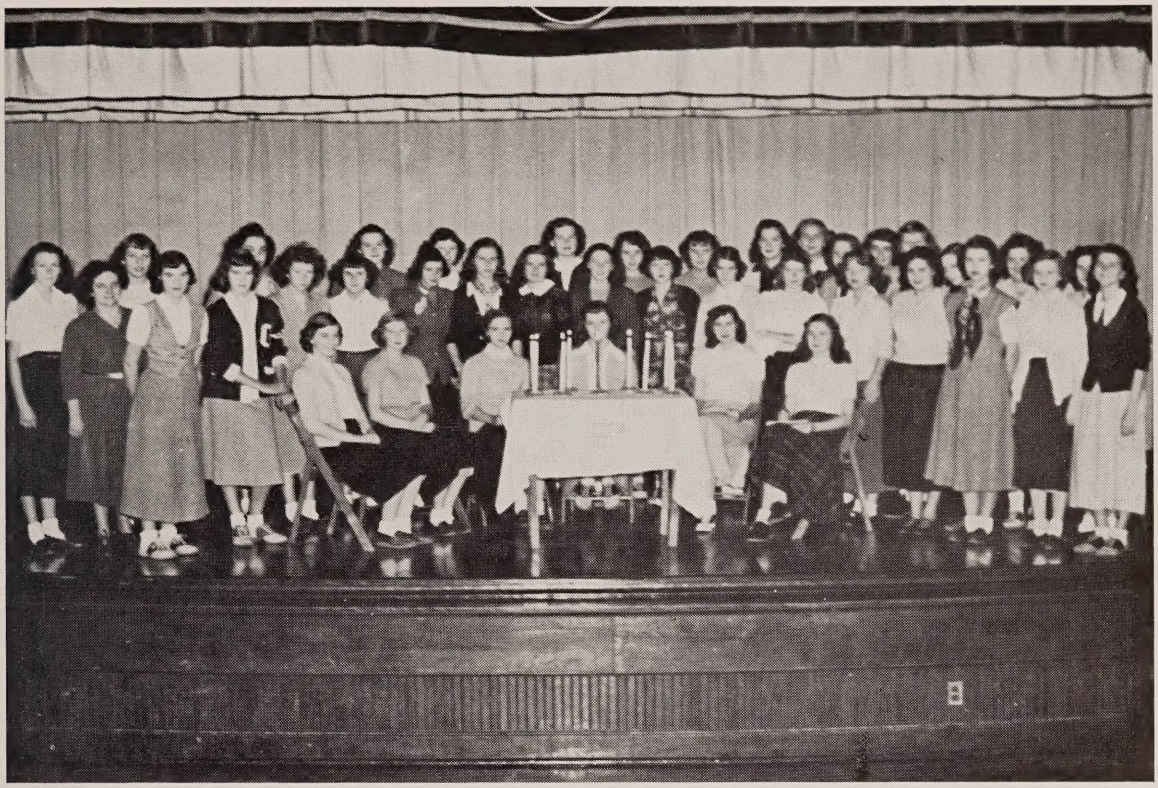
President	Emma Jean Higgins
Vice-President	Shirley Schweickert
Secretary	Joyce Ann Dodd
Treasurer	Jean Southard
Sponsor	Miss Thomason

Seated: George Higgins, Jimmy Smith, Eura Gay Strickler, Billy Condon, Madeline Powell, Roberta Hastings, Betty Smith, Juanita Matthews, Sue McCoy, Barbara Brown.

Standing: Patricia Johnson, Harriet Sanford, Shirley Martin, Rebecca Yowell, Emma Jean Higgins, Shirley Schweickert, Miss Thomason, Joyce Ann Dodd, Lucy Ann Taylor, Jean Southard, Donny Norris, Betty Stanley, Charlotte Bailey.

This club, through oral reports, posters, and a skit in the S. C. A., has attempted to create greater interest in students for books, and to build up more publicity in general for the library.

Individual members have assisted Miss Thomason in classifying books, and rearranging magazines. All have made a real effort towards improving both the atmosphere and appearance of our library.



F. H. A. Club

Creed:
We are the Future Homemakers of America
We face the future with warm courage,
And high hope.
For we have the clear consciousness of seeking
Old and precious values.
For we are the builders of homes,
Homes for America's future.
Homes where living will be the expression of everything
That is good and fair.
Homes where truth and love and security and faith
Will be realities, not dreams.
We are the Future Homemakers of America
We face the future with warm courage
And high hope.

Secretary and Treasurer	GERALDINE JARRELL
Reporter	BETSY NIEHL
Song Leader	BETTY STANLEY
Sponsors	MISS HOOD, MR. DUNN

The 4-H Club, through projects of Home Economics and Agriculture, strives to develop the "Head, Heart, Hands, and Health" of the young people. However, great emphasis is placed on the summer projects as time is limited during the school term.

Members often attend a short course at V. P. I. or a summer camp.

First Row: Sandra Beaver, Elizabeth Stinchcomb, Barbara Craun, Betty Stanley, Geraldine Jarrell, Shirley Schweickert, Randolph Shiflett, Leroy Wunsch, Harvey Peregory, Walter Pendleton, Evelyn Shiflett, Doris Morris.

Second Row: Jimmie Cluff, Robert Racer, Sarah Colvin, Lula Mae Herndon, Doris Hankins, Joan May, Charlotte Bailey, Joyce Thurman, Marjorie Phillips, Cornelia Edwards, Mary Frances Bragg, Douglas Johnston.

Third Row: Shirley Grinstead, Genevieve Morris, Margaret Faulconer, Rosa Moubray, Violet Moubray, Jackson Smith, Gwynn Yowell, Grey Peregory, Jimmy Smith, Betty Lou Browning.

Fourth Row: Ben Hudson, Doris Smith, Emma Cash, Sue McCoy, Mrs. Armentrout, Jerry Schweickert, La Verne Hogsten, Miss Hood, Betty Atkins, Talmadge Napier, Shirley Yancey, Josephine Brown, Keesee Brooking.

Absent from picture: Billy Amos, Joe Fowler, Bobby Garrett, J. B. Haney, Robert Highlander, Sam Lloyd, Barbara Mayhugh, Irwin Miller, Martha Ann Powell, Virginia Smith, Donald Tuel, Mattie Watson.

Aims of the D. O. Club for 1949-'50:

1. To purchase a substantial number of new books for D. O. Library.
2. To supply D. O. pins to all club members.
3. To take an active part in a state D. O. convention in the spring.
4. To emphasize the eight objectives of the D. O. Club.
5. To develop a creed for the D. O. class.

Safety Patrol

Captain	CARL JOHNSON
First Lieutenant	JIMMY CLUFF
Second Lieutenant	TALMADGE NAPIER
Sponsor	MISS ARMENTROUT

The patrolmen are on duty before and after school at intersections and crossings included in the school zone.

The main purpose of this organization is to prevent accidents. The objectives of the School Safety Program closely follow those of the National Safety Council.

Girl Scouts

Barbara Craun, Susan Scott, Diane Wunsch, Joan DeVivi, Marie Foster, Charlotte Bailey, Niata Phillips, Sarah Colvin, Sonja Bragg, Louise Brooking, Linda Lane, Julia Scott Todd, Dorothy Wheeler, Roberta Hastings, Edna Breeden, Sandra Beaver, Lulu Herndon, Ann Hastings, Lorraine Heilig, Sue McCoy, Barbara Bailey, Margaret Johnson, Doris Morris, Miss Armentrout, Billy Brooking, Ann Brooking, Barbara Brown, Dorothy Williams, Mrs. Ruby Thompson, Mary Frances McIntosh.

Absent: Ann McIntosh, Betsy Neihl.

Intermediate Troop Number I, organized in October of 1949 under the auspices of the P. T. A., meets weekly with its leader.

The Scouts have already completed two community projects—supplying Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners to two families. They have also taken the home nursing course offered by the Red Cross.

By their work the girls are showing the value of their motto "Be Prepared."

Orange Flight Civil Air Patrol

Absent from picture: Bobby Garrett, Davis Bledsoe, Billy Fitch, W. D. Craun.

Two member of the Civil Air Patrol, Bill Faulconer and Goodwin Sacra, attended an encampment at Langley Field last summer. They took a two weeks' course in special phases of aviation.

The purpose of this organization is to teach boys from 15-21 the theory and fundamentals of flight.

The death of their leader, Charles Morris, has necessitated the temporary inactivity of the club.

ORANGE AND BLUE

(Tune: Cornell University Alma Mater)

Orange and blue we stand together
Joined to honor thee.
Loyalty the blue is always
Orange fidelity.
Oh, dear Orange

Oh, dear Orange
Hear our song to thee.
We, thy children, carry onward
Faith and loyalty.

YELLS

Chile con carne,
Chinese rice,
Hot tamales,
And loaded dice.
Are we in it?
You're doggoned right!
Orange! Orange!
Fight—fight—fight!!!

The team was in a huddle,
The captain lowered his head
They all got together,
And this is what they said:
We've got to f—i—g-h—t
We've got to f—i—g-h—t
We've got to f—i—g-h—t
We've got to fight, team, fight!
YEA!!!

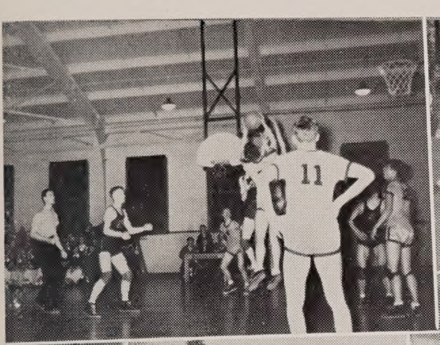
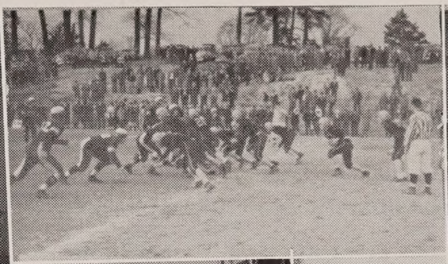
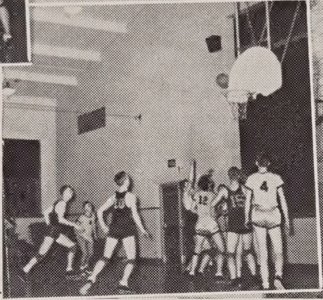
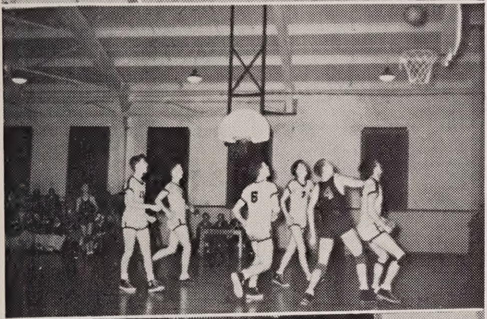
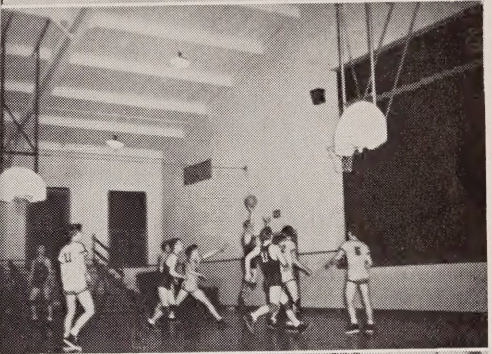
Cheer! Cheer! For Ole Orange High!!!

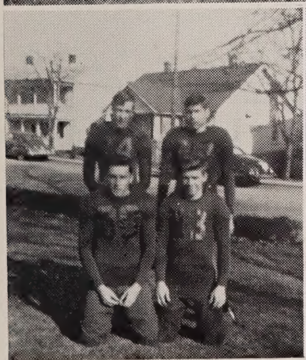


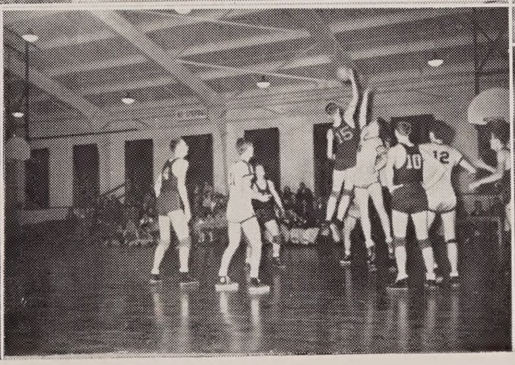












Glimpses

September 6—The changes that awaited us!! A new superintendent; Mr. Walker with a secretary. (Who? Why, none other than Margie Bartley.) Mr. Davidson still with us as Director of Instruction; new faces in the faculty—Miss Nicosia, Miss Thomason, Mr. Coleman, and a new coach (but still a blond), Mr. Ramer.

Classes! Oh, where do I go? North wing? South wing? Shoving the poor grades out to the "Annex."

Senior Class separates into two Home Rooms. My, how we've grown!

Football team getting back into shape after too many beach parties and summer frivolities. And what's this?—Cheer leaders actually practicing.

Question of the year—Why the sudden increase of "blonds" about school? (And boys at that, tut, tut.)

Mr. Pumphrey entertains the Masquers (those giggling senior girls!) Buddy and Ashby serenade with their rendition of "Why Don't You Haul Off and Love Me!"

We are going to have an S. C. A. this year?? Campaigning begins—Vote the "Common Sense" ticket.

The big Pep Rally before our Thanksgiving Football game, remember? The congo line, and band!!! We stopped down-town traffic but not Madiso[illegible]

Edith's bright remarks keep us laughing.

Christmas holiday at last—oh, more fun!! The S. C. [illegible]nce and——

"The turn of the century" and the class of '50 turns back to Orange High and Exams!!

Ah, what weather—"June in January." Chorus sings "Dixie and Southern Airs" for U. D. C.

Faculty sees themselves as others see them in "My Day—by D. N. Davidson."

Art Livick interviews Senior Class for program heard over WJMA that evening.

What about our big campaign for a new high school building? More speeches, posters, letters to "Mom and Dad"—plenty of excitement!! Dawns February 23—Before the sun set that day —a new high school for Orange County.

New coach arrives today! New coach departs today!

Back to normal life—Miss Payne still saying, "Saints preserve us" (but, something new has been added—), "Saints preserve us and take us away."

Success at last! We finally lured Coach Mavity to O. H. S. Boys warm up for baseball.

The bell goes on blink—too soft to hear. "Mary Va., will you stand up and remind the Seniors the bell has rung!"

Essays, literary contests, and Latin tournament attract our "talented ones."

Mumps on the rampage! Faculty and Seniors no exceptions.

Some students benefited by Guidance Day—in spite of themselves.

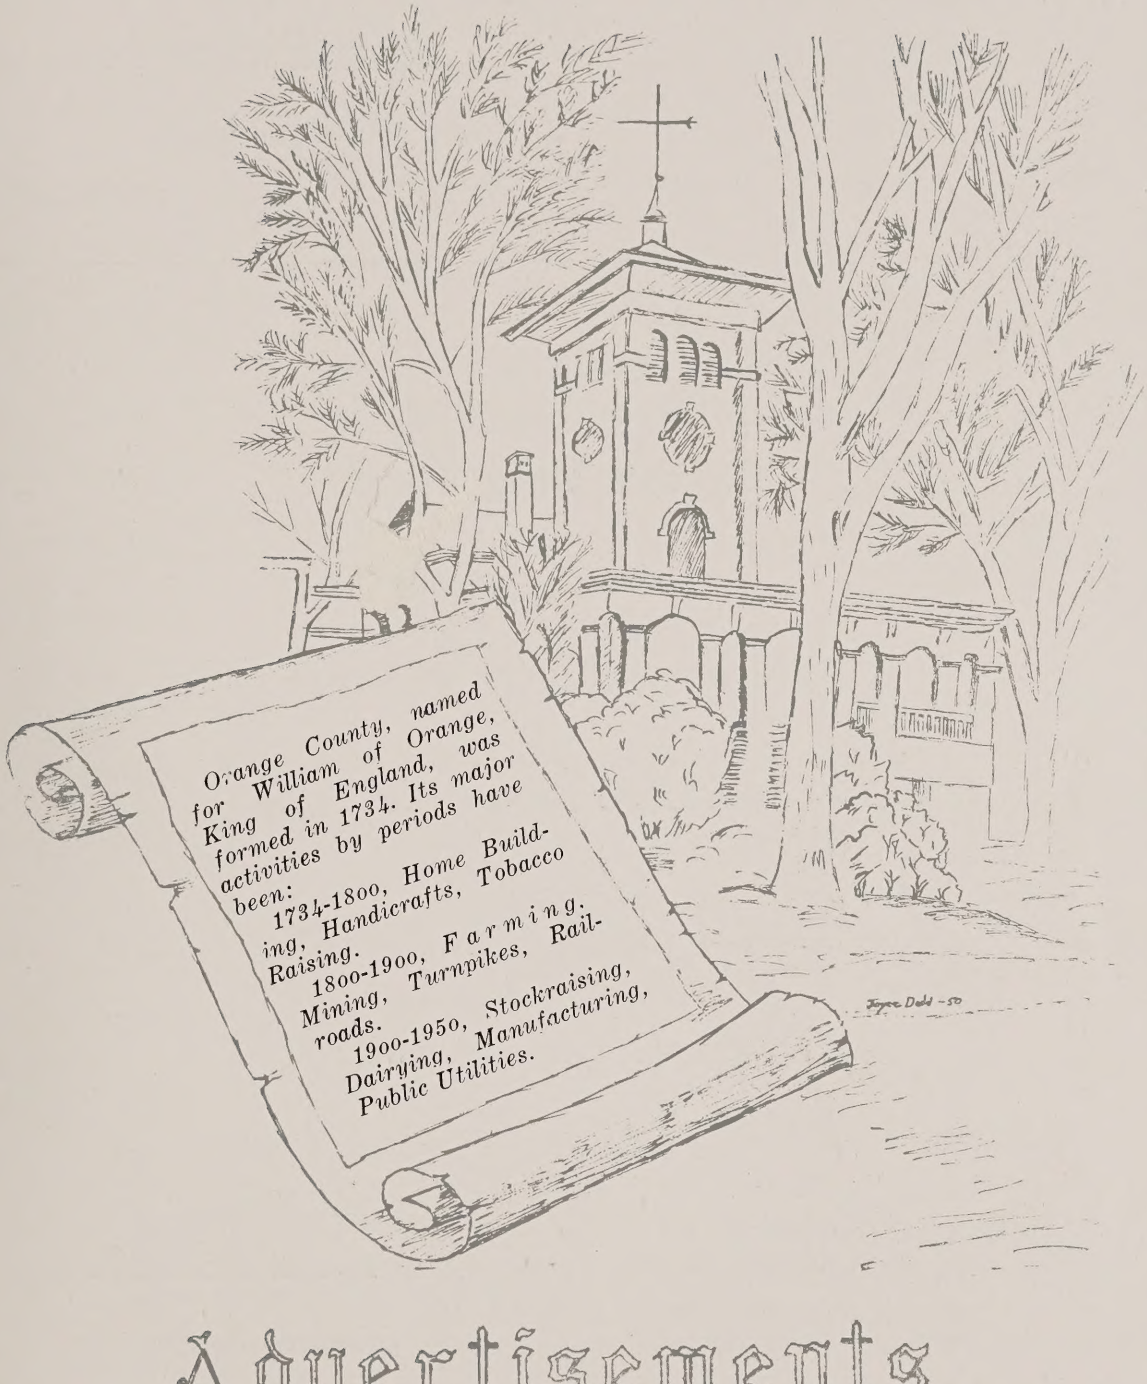
From "blood, sweat, and tears" comes our annual Variety Show. Dolly Madison lives on!

Students roar as Donnie Morris drums up a little business in Chapel.

And that Fredericksburg Tour!! Could we ever forget it?

Senior eyes match April skies as they begin to practice Class Song to the tune of "There's No Tomorrow."

And then come the final hours—dazed seniors, starry-eyed and reminiscent as school life draws to a close—the enchantment of the Junior-Senior prom—class night—the Baccalaureate Sermon—and the cherished diploma, at last!



Orange County, named for William of Orange, King of England, was formed in 1734. Its major activities by periods have been:

1734-1800, Home Building, Handicrafts, Tobacco Raising.

1800-1900, Farming, Mining, Turnpikes, Railroads.

1900-1950, Stockraising, Dairying, Manufacturing, Public Utilities.

Compliments from The Senior Class

The Seniors are indebted to many for the production of Volume IV of the printed "Orange Oracle"

To Mr. Davidson, for his assistance in choice of historical scenes; to Wiley Reynolds, an alumnus, for his help on the etchings and lettering; to friends and business men for their financial aid, may we say, "Thanks sincerely."
